The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act

Food Stamps

Description

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act provides an additional $20 billion for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program ("food stamps"). It also lifts restrictions on the amount of time that people can receive food stamps.

How to obtain food stamps

The food stamp program is administered by the County of San Diego's Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA). You may obtain an application at any of HHSA's Family Resource Centers:
